Mary Johnson Is Married to Robert F. Acker

MOTORING to Florida are two Rocky River residents who were married yesterday morning. They are Mary Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Johnson, 19920 Riverview Avenue, and Robert Francis Acker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen L. Acker of 21238 Endsley Avenue. Rev. Edmund J.

MRS. ROBERT FRANCIS ACKER (Mary Louise Johnson) Trout-Ware

Ahern officiated at St. Christopher's Church in that suburb. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and snapdragons were placed on the altar, along with palms, ferns and two large candelabra.

A gown of Chantilly lace over candlelight satin was chosen by Miss Johnson, who carried a petite bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. The gown was fastened with a nylon tulle train cascading beneath a lace bustle. Her veiling of illusion was attached to a tiny Juliet cap of matching lace.

Jeanne Johnson, maid of honor, wore an ankle-length gown of deep blue with a skirt of tiered net. Gold ankle-length gowns in a similar style were worn by Bridesmaids Aliceann Acker and Mrs. Raymond Williams, jr. The flower girl, Noreen Mahoney, was in gold velvet. Cyril Brabenec was best man. The ushers were Harry Burkhardt, jr., and Neil T. Van Uum.

A breakfast and a reception were held at the Lake Shore Hotel. The couple will live at 2236 Wooster Road, Rocky River, after Jan. 31. The bride attended Ursuline College. Her husband studied at John Carroll.

MRS. ANDREW M. MISNY Erioy Sanford

In St. Jerome's Church Saturday, Jan. 10, Rose Marie Vulich was married to Andrew Michael Misny, son of John Misny, 731 E. 91st Street. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Veronica Vulich, 14218 Sylvia Avenue N. E. Attendants were Helen Vulich, Robert Holzheim, Gorman Lamont, and Edward Bellan. The breakfast was at the Sisters of St. Mark convent. Mr. and Mrs. Misny have gone to the Poconos for their wedding trip.
