Grotto sure cure for work, worry ills Otto's

By Tom Davis Jr.

Well, its been a long long time since we've visitthe mecca of joyful iness, namely Otto's madness, namely with its wild Grotto lights and often deafening I but danceable music of tomorrow. But then yours truly has been in something of a boring rut these last few months. I'm sure you know the routine - its called work, worry, and hills.

If you have had the same disease lately, then you're at the point where a wild temporary) affair (but would be right down your lidibo's alley. If so, then we suggest you join Judy Ann Miller, Sandee Miller, Dick Smith, Bill Laszlo, Jamie Wunderle and Tom Derigo and make if a Family Affair - which is the name of the group now appearing at Otto's Grotto this week and next.

THEY (The Family Affair) happen to be an unusually entertaining group, as well as musically better than average. Oh, their music is danceable all right, except that you get something of a stage show to go with it.

And judging from some of their song and dance routines, I'd say this group definitely has got designs on show business.

Judy Miller is the dancer of the group and according to her biography, "has an affinity for taking micro-phones apart!" She ex-plains this as being the result of not receiving a much wanted Erector Set for Christmas. The audience has a hard time keeping an eye on her as she scampers around the stage." Allegedly The Family Affair has remendied this, by secretly planting two pieces of super-sticky bubble gum on each show. All kidding aside, the group's personal manager claims that, Judy is a frustrated saxophone player, tap dancer, cheer leader, and bootlegger and singer.

SANDEE Miller is the vocalist, who claims to have "taught Martha Raye everything that she knows". Her main goal is to be lead singer with The Family Affair- she's working on it!

Bass guitarist and vocalist is Dick Smith, dubbed as the outstanding showman of the group, with the ability to play "complex patterns on bass in an unique style." He likes to convey words of wisdom such as: "Behind every beautiful woman, there is an entourage.

The fourth but not last vocalist of the group is organist Bill Laszlo. He was born in Cleveland, on September 9. 1950 at Fairview Hospital. Now he's deserted his mother for his new idol - jazz organist Jimmy Smith

THE LEADER of this freaky affair is lead guitarist Jamie Wunderle. The fifth and last vocalist of this six member family is Tom Derigo, the drummer, nicknamed Tucker. Tucker, also a Cleveland boy, beats the dickens out of a set of drums and runs a mean race on the harmonica. It all got started when he won a Soap Box Derby some years back.
