Cholly Knickerbocker

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—Beyond the question of the most eye-catching and eye-catching motor car to be seen in the fashionable thoroughfares of New York these late summer days is the question of the most eye-catching registered machine in the city.

Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, sr., who is in such an elegant mood about her new car, is the answer for any criticism of the unusual body opens up the panther of an old-fashioned Victoria, and affords the sleek and sleek Sylvia an excellent view of New York's skyline.

The Fairbanks' car is a "Rolling" I haven't said it is "Rolling" But Sylvia Fairbanks has an answer for any criticism of her fabulous car—"You can't see it from the street."

The most philanthropic of the famous actresses—titled and untitled—settled in New York City is the Duchess de Talleyrand, who as Anna Gould, the wife of the late Jay Gould, has a special history when she married the great-grandfather of the late Talleyrand, who she later divorced in order to marry his cousin, the late Duke of Talleyrand.

Anna Gould de Castellane de Talleyrand has an open heart and an open purse so far as friends of the poor are concerned. And she has learned the Rance of the late Jay Gould, who she later divorced in order to marry his cousin, the late Duke of Talleyrand.

Color! FOR GRAY HAIR with CANUTE WATER

If you have gray hair, just wet it with Canute Water. A few applications will completely re-color it, similar to its former natural shade... in one day, if you wish. After that, attention only once a month will keep it young-looking.

Your hair will retain its naturally soft texture and lovely new color even after shampooing, perspiration, curling or waving. It remains clean and natural to the touch and looks natural in any light.

SAFE—No Skin Test Needed!

Canute Water is pure, colorless and crystal-clear. It has a remarkable record of 25 years without injury to a single person. In fact, scientific research at one of America's greatest Universities proved Canute Water to be perfectly harmless.

No Other Product Can Make All These Claims

Is it any wonder that we sell more Canute Water than all other hair coloring preparations combined?

make snooty society bingo conscious. Consie has arranged a series of bingo contests at the Ritz Carlton in aid of her favorite charity. And you should see how the smart set's heavily upholstered dowagers go for bingo. Gosh! Is there to be nothing left exclusively for the "great unwashed"?

While 'tis only gossip, I hear Lord Louis Mountbatten, whose wife once enjoyed (?) the title of "the richest woman in England," will join the United States Pacific fleet next week to act as an observer of the fleet's maneuvers. Lord Louis, cousin of the British king, is one of the British fleet's best known and most daring officers—in addition to being a crack polo player in more peaceful times.

Almost from the day of their marriage, gossips on both sides of the Atlantic have had the Mountbattens marital barque headed for the rocks. Yet, almost 20 years have elapsed and their union happily survives. While her husband is away on his more or less secret duties, Lady Mountbatten will tour the United States making speeches to stir up interest in British war relief enterprises among the fair sex of the states.

This must mean something—but I can't figure out what: Vincent Astor, who is worth $70,000,000, always goes into a barber shop (usually in his own hotel, the St. Regis) when in need of a shave or a hair cut. His half brother, John Jacob Astor, whose fortune totals $5,000,000, almost always insists a barber come to him at his apartment!
