Newlyweds Honeymoon in New York

ST. PHILOMENA'S CHURCH was the scene of the wedding yesterday morning at 11 of Miss Cathleen P. Troughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Troughton, 1470 E. 116th Street, and Mr. Frank P. Straub, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Straub, 1259 Ansel Road N. E. White roses and palms decorated the church and the service was solemn high nuptial mass said by the Rev. Msgr. Richard E. Brennan of Akron. The bride wore a heavy candlelight satin gown with sweetheart neckline and long puffed sleeves. Falling over her long train was a veil which had been worn by her sister, Mrs. John W. Lauer (Mary Troughton). This was of rose point lace over tulle and was held by a Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried calla lilies. Mrs. Lauer was the matron of honor and another sister, Miss Rosemary R. Troughton, was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Beverly Straub, was the bridesmaid. All were gowned alike with long flowing Juliet chiffon gowns in champagne shade, with matching caps. Their accessories were gold and they carried Johanna Hill roses with blue larkspur tied with gold bows. Mr. Thomas J. Troughton, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. James J. Troughton, another brother, Peter Ostrye, Stanley J. Lechowicz, Charles J. Pogacar of Leitchburg. Breakfast for the immediate families followed at Park Lane Villa. In the afternoon there was a reception for the friends and families.

The couple left for New York for their wedding trip. The bride was graduated from Ursuline Academy and the Charly Hospital School of Nursing. She attended Cleveland College. Mr. Straub was graduated from Adelbert College and the Western Reserve University School of Social Sciences. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.
