

Bogart May Fly to Germany for Role in 'Embassy Baby'

BY LOUELLA O. PARSONS HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 4.—(INS)—If Humphrey Bogart hadn't met Peter Rathvon at a party, probably nothing would have been said about "Embassy Baby," which Peter is making in Germany. But they got to talking and Peter told Bogart all about the comedy he is making with Eva Bartok.

"I'd like to do that," said Bogey. "If you only would" was the answer from Producer Rathvon. As it stands now, if Bogey has time before he starts "When a Man is King," he will go to Germany for the Rathvon comedy.

Barry Has Fun Club Everything I've been hearing about Gene Barry stealing "Naked Alibi" as the psychopathic killer is true. He has been upped to costar billing with Tony Curtis in "Purple Mask," a swash-buckler which Howard Christie is producing for U-I Studio.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Francis P. Carr, another top aide to Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) in his investigations, is resigning from the McCarthy subcommittee staff just as Roy M. Cohn did.

Ferrer Buys 'Pirate' A letter to Olivia De Havilland from Pierre Gallante tells her that he is producing "The Pirate," which opens the last of October. He will come and get "Livvie" and take her back to Paris where they will be married, but he won't be able to get her until she finishes "Not As A Stranger."

He alleges that on Oct. 13, 1952, at a political rally McCarthy said of Greenspun, "He admits he is an ex-Communist." The day after that the publisher swore out an affidavit saying, "It's the dirtiest lie McCarthy ever told."

Early this year Greenspun was indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of mailing copies of his newspaper containing a column which tended to "incite murder or assassination" of McCarthy. A hearing in that case is scheduled later this month.
