ITALIAN SOCIETIES HERE HONOR KING

Also Recall Armistice Day and Mussolini's March on Rome.

Three major Italian events were observed in Cleveland yesterday. A solemn Mass was celebrated at St. George's Church in honor of the memory of the late King Victor Emmanuel III, whose birthday is today. St. George's is the only church in the United States named in honor of King Victor Emmanuel II, who was assassinated in 1900. The Mass was followed by a Thanksgiving service at St. Louis Church, where the late King's son, Prince Amedeo, now Duke of Aosta, was a guest of the Society of the Holy Spirit.

"The ball was tonight in honor of the Pope and the King," said Miss Anna Mazzocchi, president of the Italian Federation of Cleveland, "because, of course, the Pope and the King are the only two people who have been able to control the Southern Italian people."
